Railway electrification

The Transpennine Route Upgrade (TRU) aims to deliver faster, longer, more frequent and more reliable services across the north of England, from Newcastle, Hull and York towards Manchester and Liverpool via Leeds. Network Rail has worked on the development of potential infrastructure options for the Transpennine Route Upgrade and has now submitted these options to the Department for Transport (DfT) for consideration.

Work is already underway electrifying the trans-Pennine route with the section between Manchester Victoria and Stalybridge expected to be completed by December 2019. However, the 'scope' of the remainder of the route has not been decided, and there remains the possibility that some 'difficult' sections will not be electrified, with bi-mode trains already ordered by FirstGroup, the current Train Operating Company (bi-mode trains can be powered by diesel or electric where overhead wires exist). Also on 20 July 2017 the government announced the cancellation of the Cardiff – Swansea, Kettering – Nottingham/Sheffield and Windermere projects, saying the use of electro-diesel trains could offer similar passenger benefits without needing disruptive engineering works.

The Transpennine Route Upgrade (TRU) aims to deliver faster, longer, more frequent and more reliable services across the north of England, from Newcastle, Hull and York towards Manchester and Liverpool via Leeds. In a letter to the Railway Industry Association dated July 12, Secretary of State for Transport Chris Grayling said the upgrade of the route between Manchester and York would include 'both major civil engineering projects and electrification', and would be the biggest enhancement project on the existing network during Control Period 6 (2019-24). Most of the track bed would be relaid and efforts would be made to straighten lengths of track to improve line speed. The rolling programme is due to start in Spring 2019. Recently there had been concerns that electrification would be cancelled after Chris Grayling argued last year that it may be "too difficult" to proceed with electrification along the entire route.

Kirklees Local Plan

The Kirklees Local Plan was submitted to the Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government on 25 April 2017, so that it can be examined by an independent Inspector. The hearing has now ended and a post hearing letter from the inspector dated 15 June 2018 stated that 'subject to main modifications, the Plan is likely to be capable of being found legally compliant and sound' Details of required modifications can be found at <https://examinationnewskirklees.wordpress.com/> which contains documents for each of the 4 stages.

The HD one

Adjoining Huddersfield's award-winning John Smiths Stadium, just off the A62 Leeds Road, The HD One development is 5 minutes from both the centre of Huddersfield and junction 25 of the M62.

Kirklees Council has granted planning permission to site owners Kirklees Stadium Development Ltd (KSDL) to transform a 54 acre site astride the River Colne into a multi-use leisure, entertainment and sporting destination close to Huddersfield town centre. In September 2016 Kirklees Council cabinet approved a £4m loan to turn The HD One ski slope dream "into a reality". The site will build on the existing success of the stadium, the nine-screen Odeon cinema and the Kirklees Active Leisure health and fitness club, increasing expected annual visitor numbers from some 1.5m to over 4m.

The HD One will become home to a host of new activity attractions such as ten-pin bowling, open dry ski slope, indoor surf cafe and body flight. With a hotel, casino, bingo, clubs, and specialist shops, and no fewer than 21 restaurants, bars, and cafés, the scheme will transform this outer town centre area.

KSDL and CDP have created a joint venture company 'The HD One Kirklees Limited' which will build the scheme. The total construction plan sees The HD One Leisure Scheme opening late in 2020 though a final planning application had yet to be submitted as at August 2018 after changes to the scheme were announced early 2018.

The local economy

Kirklees Factsheets 2018

Gross Value Added 2017 (balanced approach)

Gross Value Added (GVA) is a measure of the increase in the value of the economy due to the production of goods and services. For the balanced measure, GVA(B), it is measured at current basic prices (value in £ million), which include the effect of inflation. At larger geographical areas (greater than local authority), GVA(B) is provided in "real" terms in chained volume measures (CVM), with the effect of inflation removed.

Historically ONS has produced estimates of regional gross value added (GVA) using the income approach (as National Statistics) and the production approach (as Experimental Statistics). However, for the first time ONS have taken the strengths from both approaches and used them to produce a new balanced measure of regional GVA, GVA(B). This gives users a single measure of economic activity within a region, therefore avoiding any confusion from having two different estimates of the same thing.

In 2017 the GVA for Kirklees was £7.7bn which represents less than 1% of the UK total of £1.82tn. Nationally, the City of London has the highest GVA per head (£7.861m) with Blaenau Gwent the lowest at £12,599 (UK £27,555). In West Yorkshire Leeds had the highest GVA per head (£29,626), followed by Calderdale (£22,793), Wakefield (£21,497), Bradford (£18,757) and Kirklees (£17,500). In 1998 manufacturing accounted for 28.3% of GVA(B) in Kirklees (UK 16.1%), by 2017 this had shrunk to 21.1% (UK 10.1%).

Joint Strategic Needs Assessment

Local authorities and clinical commissioning groups (CCGs) have to develop Joint Strategic Needs Assessments (JSNAs) and Joint Health and Wellbeing Strategies (JHWSs), on behalf of the Health and Wellbeing Board.

The KJSA provides a picture of the health and wellbeing of Kirklees people and is used to inform the commissioning strategies and plans of the council, Greater Huddersfield CCG, North Kirklees CCG and the local voluntary and community sector.

It includes information about health needs and assets. Health assets help people and communities to maintain and sustain their health and well-being, such as skills, knowledge, their networks and connections and community spaces, for example parks.

The KJSA site (<http://observatory.kirklees.gov.uk/jsna>) is split up into sections. Each section under the four main headings uses a life course approach to explain who is affected and where and outlines what actions commissioners and service planners can consider.

Wider factors explores home, community and economic factors.

Behaviours explores health behaviours.

People and life events explores specific groups and life transitions.

Conditions explores common health conditions and diseases.

Disability Living Allowance November 2017

Disability Living Allowance (DLA) is a tax-free benefit for adults and children with a disability or illness who need help with getting around or help with personal care or help with both of these. Normally help must have been needed for at least 3 months and must be likely to be needed for at least a further 6 months. People cannot claim Disability Living Allowance on or after their 65th birthday, even if the need for help started before then, however if they are claimants on their 65th birthday, they can continue to receive the benefit. (People aged 65 or over who need help with personal care may be able to get Attendance Allowance). In Kirklees, 3.3% of all people (around 1 in 30) claim DLA; this increases to 4.8% for ages 60 to 69 (1 in 20). Note: Personal Independence Payment (PIP) is replacing Disability Living Allowance (DLA) for people with a long-term health condition or disability aged 16 to 64; at November 2017 there were 12,234 claims in payment.
